Report No: CAO-24-2024

Subject: Canada Community-Building Fund

Recommendation:

THAT Report CAO-24-2024 re: Canada Community-Building Fund be received for information.

Purpose:

The purpose of this report is to provide an overview of the annual report from the Canada Community-Building Fund (CCBF) which highlights infrastructure projects that have received funding support in Middlesex Centre.

Background:

The Canada Community-Building Fund (CCBF) provides stable, permanent funding that helps address infrastructure needs to facilitate growth, enhance quality of life and build thriving, future-ready municipalities).

The Association of Municipalities of Ontario (AMO) plays a pivotal role in administering this vital infrastructure funding program to municipalities across the province, excluding the City of Toronto. Over $10 billion has been invested in more than 13,500 projects since 2005.

Analysis:

Attached to this Report is the 2023 Annual Report – Part 1 that outlines the distribution of infrastructure funds which are broken down by category. These categories include Productivity and Economic Growth, Clean Environment, and Strong Cities and Communities.

Communities across Canada received $2.4 billion in 2023. Ontario's share came to $891 million. Funds were distributed to municipalities on a per-capita basis.

For a detailed listing of infrastructure projects in Middlesex Centre that have been supported by the CCBF, please see the link: Project Map | Canada Community-Building Fund \(buildingcommunities.ca\)

Financial Implications:
